Information and Authorization for Criminal Background Checking

As you know, your work with The Arc of Monmouth carries a great deal of responsibility. Whether you will be working in an administrative capacity, working directly with the people we serve, or both, the impact you have on the Agency's operation is significant.

As such, you are advised that the Agency requires that a background check, which provides information contained in a criminal history, be performed on all prospective employees and volunteers who may have contact with individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities. This information will be maintained with the highest levels of confidentiality; access is restricted to you, your Department Head, Executive Staff, and the Director of Human Resources.

Please be advised that your offer of employment, and/or offer of volunteer work, is contingent upon our receipt of the criminal history information included in the background check. Should the criminal history check reveal information which is, in Arc's judgement, contrary to standards which can be reasonably expected of a person holding your position, the Agency reserves the right to deny your application for employment or volunteer position. You will be notified in writing if there is any adverse information provided to us in the criminal background screening. In the case of employment, you will have thirty (30) days to pursue a formal appeal, in writing, of the denial of employment.

Should you be interested in reviewing your completed background check, please send your request, in writing, to the Director of Human Resources and a copy of the report will be forwarded to you. If you have any questions regarding your criminal background check, contact the Director of Human Resources.
