Time for a Change

It saddens me to write this, but after 35 years with this wonderful agency, I will be retiring from my position as Recreation Director at the end of June. My first seven years at The Arc were in the residential department, which provided a great introduction to the mission of the agency. For the last 28 years, I have had the privilege of providing services to all of you through Recreation. I have had so many wonderful opportunities and have made so many friends over the years.

Thank you to all my families who have supported this department and have shared all your kind words over the years. A special thanks to all the volunteers that have made the Recreation department so successful.

By the way, The Arc's Annual Meeting & Awards evening on Thursday, June 27th. This promises to be a wonderful evening to honor special members, employees, and volunteers for their dedication to The Arc of Monmouth. The Broadcast Club will also be performing the emotional finale from their recital singing "This is Me" from the Greatest Showman. Come see your peers perform!
